

"A ship in harbor is safe, but that is not what ships are built for."

John A. Shedd

Access to College Education

ACE NEWSLETTER | JANUARY 2022

ACE EVENTS

*Reminder: At this time ACE events are still virtual. We hope to begin offering in-person experiences late this spring.

*Tip: Some events require DUAL registration with ACE and the external facilitator. Read instructions attentively.

Mindful Monday
1/31/22 @ 8:00pm

Each month, students are invited to show up for yourself and learn stress reduction and empowering strategies to help you manage your days.

IC School of Music Virtual Information Session
2/3/22 @ 4:00pm

Example of Dual Registration Event

Orientation (For new ACE community members)
2/3/22 @ 6:30pm

What is a First Generation College Student?
2/9/22 @ 8:00pm

New ACE
Program Structure
Feedback Session
2/16/22 @ 8:00pm

We are launching new program expectations and expanded incentives for the ACE program; learn about proposed changes and share feedback about your program goals.

Happy New Year!

This mini-newsletter is to encourage you to start registering for spring events. We've got lots of new opportunities happening this semester, including Mindful Mondays, New Program Expectation Feedback Sessions, programs with all four sponsoring colleges, and the ACE Student Advisory Board. You can find more details within the website's program descriptions and in the next ACE newsletter.

Warmest Regards,
Erica L Shockley
(she/her)
ACE Coordinator

CLICK HERE EVENT
REGISTRATION

Since 1989, ACE has been a sponsored collaboration between Cornell University, Ithaca College, SUNY Cortland, and Tompkins Cortland Community College supporting upstate NY local school districts

Instagram and Facebook
@accesstocollegeeducation

ace@cortland.edu
607-753-5662
cortland.edu/ace