Final exam policy: All courses must adhere to the final examination policy published in the SUNY Cortland Handbook, section 415.03.

Religious holidays: Students who miss classes, exams or work requirements because of religious beliefs shall be excused and will be provided with opportunities to make up exams or work missed because of the absence. This does not prohibit faculty from giving assignments/exams on a given day. The purpose is to allow individual students alternatives based on religious practice when they make a request.
